

Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force

presents an awareness and prevention workshop

KNOW MORE, DO BETTER FOR PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS

A Hybrid Workshop

Join In-Person or Virtually / Offered in English and Spanish

Save your seat to learn about the risks of online abuse, sexual exploitation and human trafficking, and how you can work with your children and youths to keep them safe and healthy.

Saddleback Church, Anaheim Campus, 2095 E. Katella Ave., Anaheim, CA 92806

WORKSHOP TO EDUCATE PARENTS ON QUESTIONS OFTEN ASKED:

WHAT: Is human trafficking, exploitation and abuse, are the signs of child sexual grooming, it looks like in Orange County, are the resources of support for parents and caregivers to explore.

HOW: It can happen to any child with internet access, to talk to children about body safety and prevent and respond to sexual abuse, to assess workplace and job safety under U.S. labor laws.

WHY: It is important to develop protective relationships with children, teach about healthy relationships including identifying trusted adults and model healthy boundaries and consent.

WHEN: Sextortion and other online risks effect mental health, to use tools and tips to empower children to stay safe in the digital world, to get help from professional and trusted resources.

Please scan the QR code to register OR click here to register!

Disclaimer: Due to the sensitive topics presented, it is not recommended for children to attend as the content and discussion are formatted for parent and adult learning.

In partnership with the Global Center for Women & Justice and OC Department of Education

